A STATEMENT.

These copies are of records of the names etc., from the stone markers at graves in the old burial lots and plots and in the old cemeteries of Lake County, Indiana, (from the time it became a county in 1837 until approximately 1900 when official records were required.) The research was made by Mrs. Waldon A. McBride and Mrs. Joseph E. Brown (D.A.R.).

There are five (5) books each, volumes I. and II., and of the Index. The Index is alphabetically set up by townships and cross indexed for name and page. Three complete sets have been printed, bound, and distributed by the Julia Watkins Brass Chapter, N.S.D.A.R. of Crown Point. One set has been sent to the National D.A.R. Library in Washington D.C.; one set to the Indiana State Library at Indianapolis and the other set remains in the local chapter file.

Two (2) Copies of each have been typed by Mrs. W.J. Vanderlaan, Lake County Historical Society, and placed in three ring Buckram binders, standard size. The title and volume number have been inscribed in gold lettering on each one.

One set was made for the Lake County Historical Society and has been presented. The other is to be placed in the file of the Indiana State Society N.S.D.A.R. at Indianapolis.

Respectfully submitted August 14, 1965

Burial Bill

Frances wrote
Crown Cemetery

INDIANAPOLIS (Spl.) — Rep. James S. Hunter, D-East Chicago, said today he would like to hear expressions from Lake County residents on a bill he introduced last week permitting the re-burial of bodies from neglected cemeteries.

Hunter said he introduced the bill, House Bill 1264, at the request of Merritt D. Metz, a Lowell attorney. He said the bill involves a small cemetery in Hobart Township, on land which is being considered for use as a subdivision.

The Lake County legislator said, "The property is not suitable for cemetery purposes, and I'd like to see it get on the tax rolls."

In other action in the Assembly Monday, Rep. William Babincsak, D-Munster, and Paul Hric, D-Hammond, introduced a bill which would allow the Lake County Council to set the salary of the Lake County prosecutor if he practices law in addition to his duties as prosecutor.

The bill is House Bill 1273, which went to the Judiciary A committee. Present law limits the prosecutor to a salary of $13,500 if he also practices law, under provisions of a 1959 statute.

FOREWARD

This index has been compiled with the hope that it will make the use of previously done cemetery records more simple.

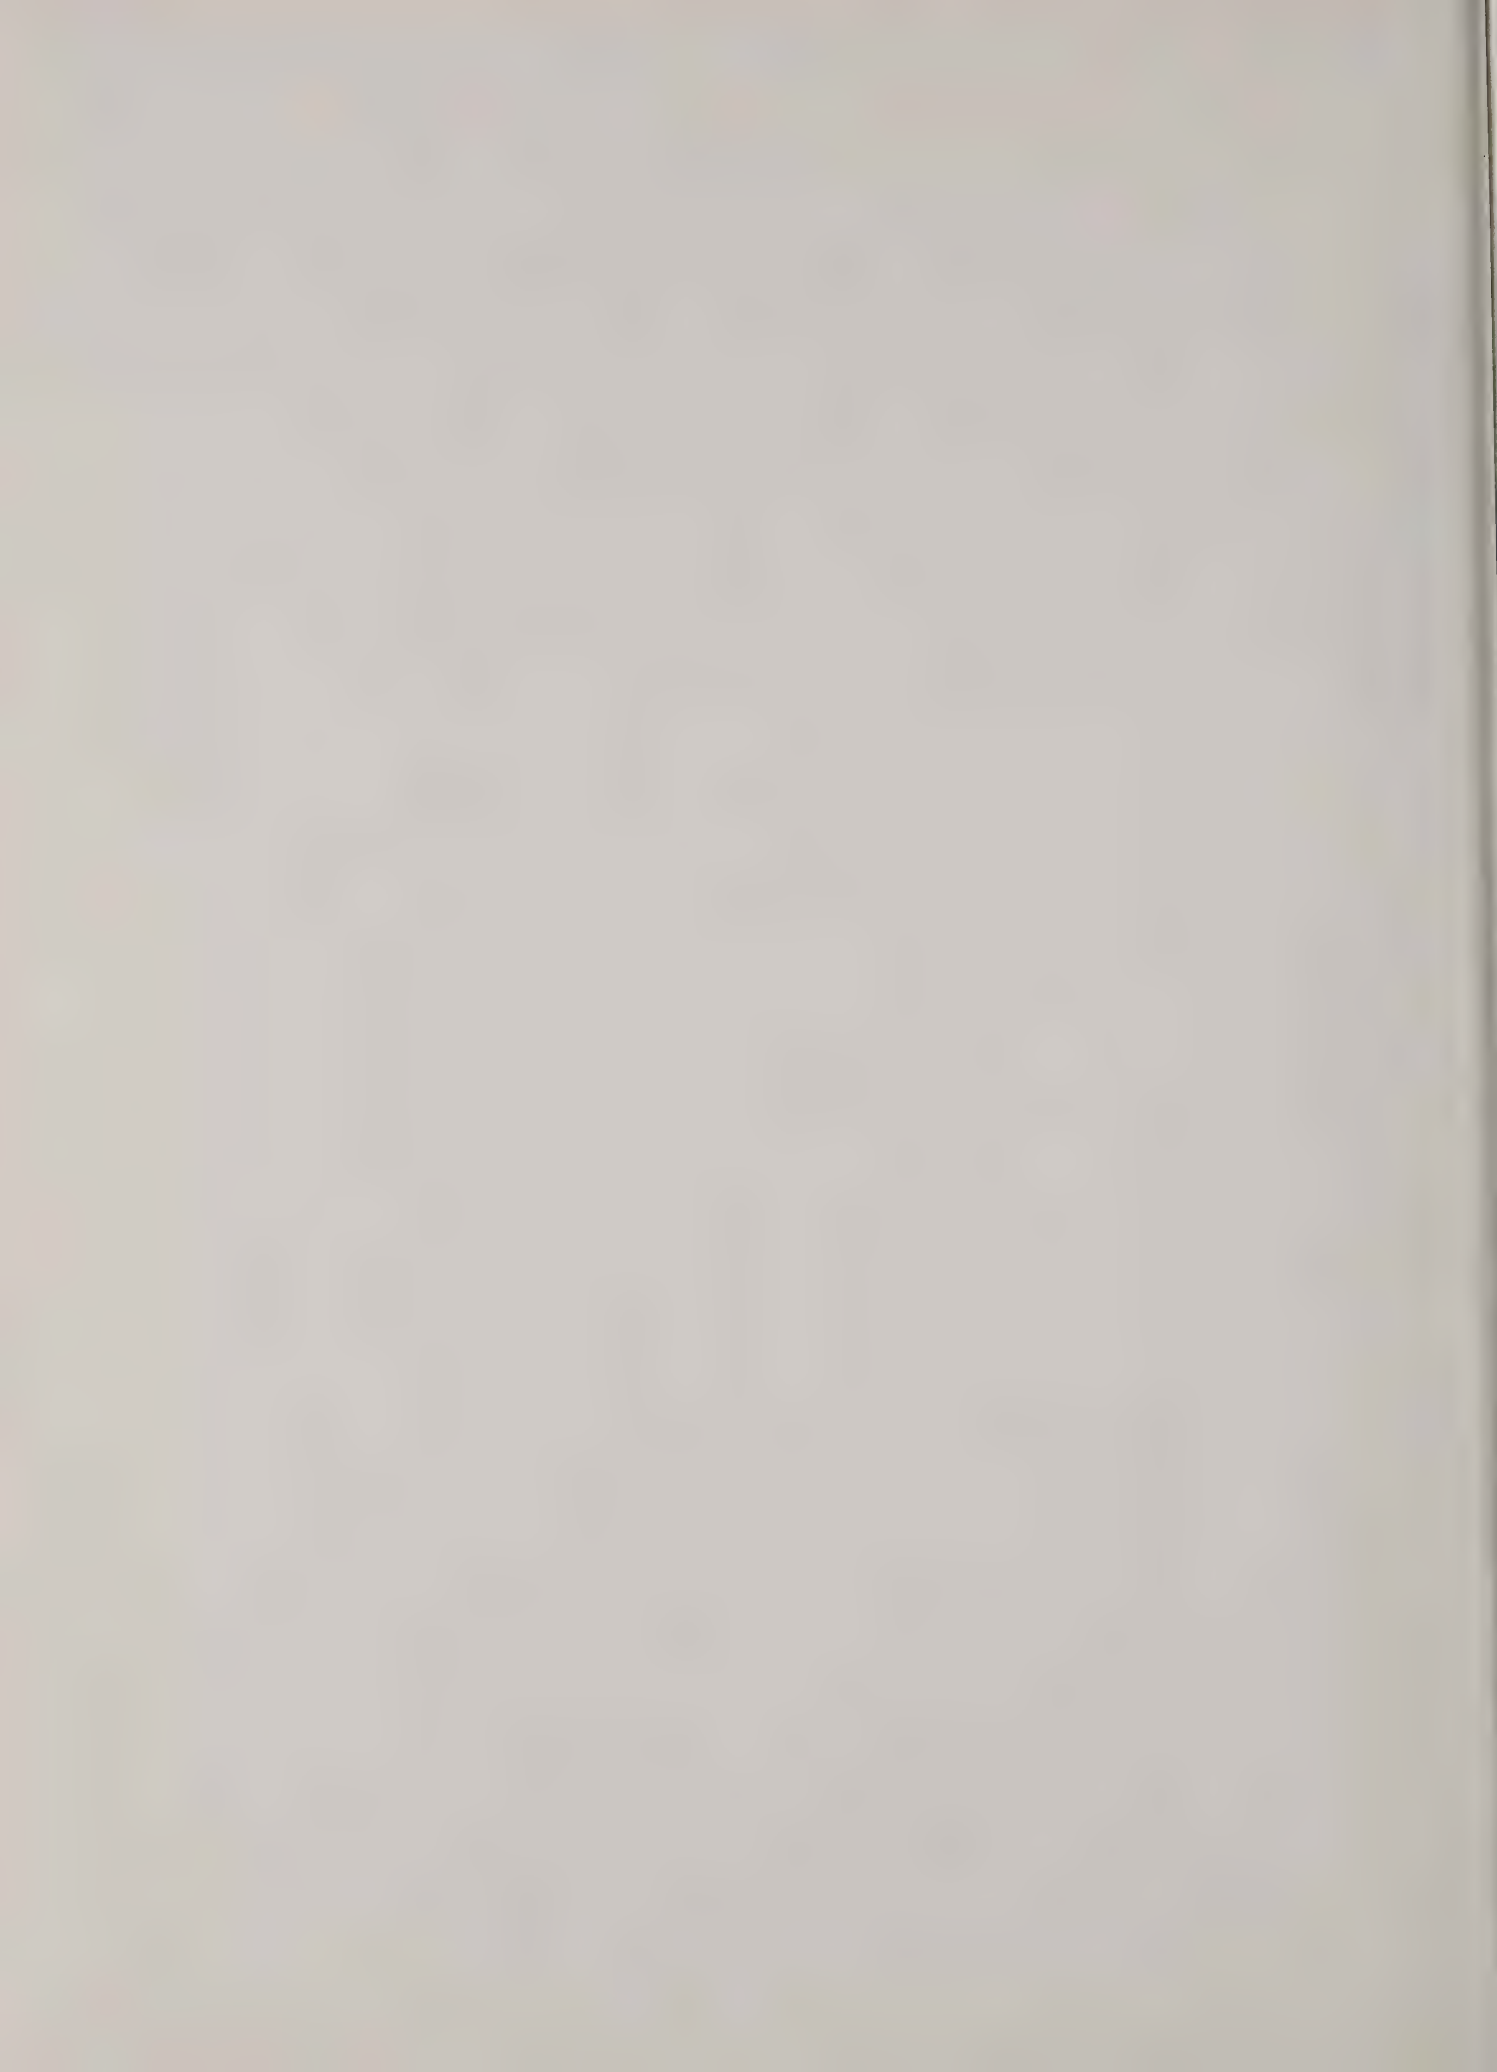

Mrs. Joseph E. Brown and Mrs. Waldon A. McBride began the recording of cemetery data in 1954. Mrs. Brown and Mrs. C.E. Black had in 1928, taken material from the then abandoned two early Crown Point cemeteries. Had it not been for their efforts, material from the John Luther cemetery and the Old Burying^{Ground} would not now be available.

As a basis for the work, the volume, Lake County, 1834-1872, by Timothy Ball was used. As work progressed, other early cemeteries were found. In all some fifty-five cemeteries in eleven townships were located and material recorded. In several cases it was found that the cemeteries had been removed, or had been abandoned, or stones removed. These facts were duly noted on a sheet with whatever information could be found.

With several cemeteries, compilers were able to find church death records, or burial permits. This information has also been included with the cemetery records.

A key for locating each name follows this foreward. Maps with locations are also included.

The compilers wish to thank Madge Lynch of Lowell, Indiana; and Mrs. Hattie McMay of the Obadiah Taylor Chapter of Lowell; for the Lowell and St. Edward's cemeteries; Mrs. C.A. Huber of the Pottowatomie Chapter of Gary, Indiana, for the Waldheim and Tolleston cemeteries; Dixon A. Barr for his help in the Creston records; and Mrs. J.J. Baldwin for her help in the Crown Hill records.

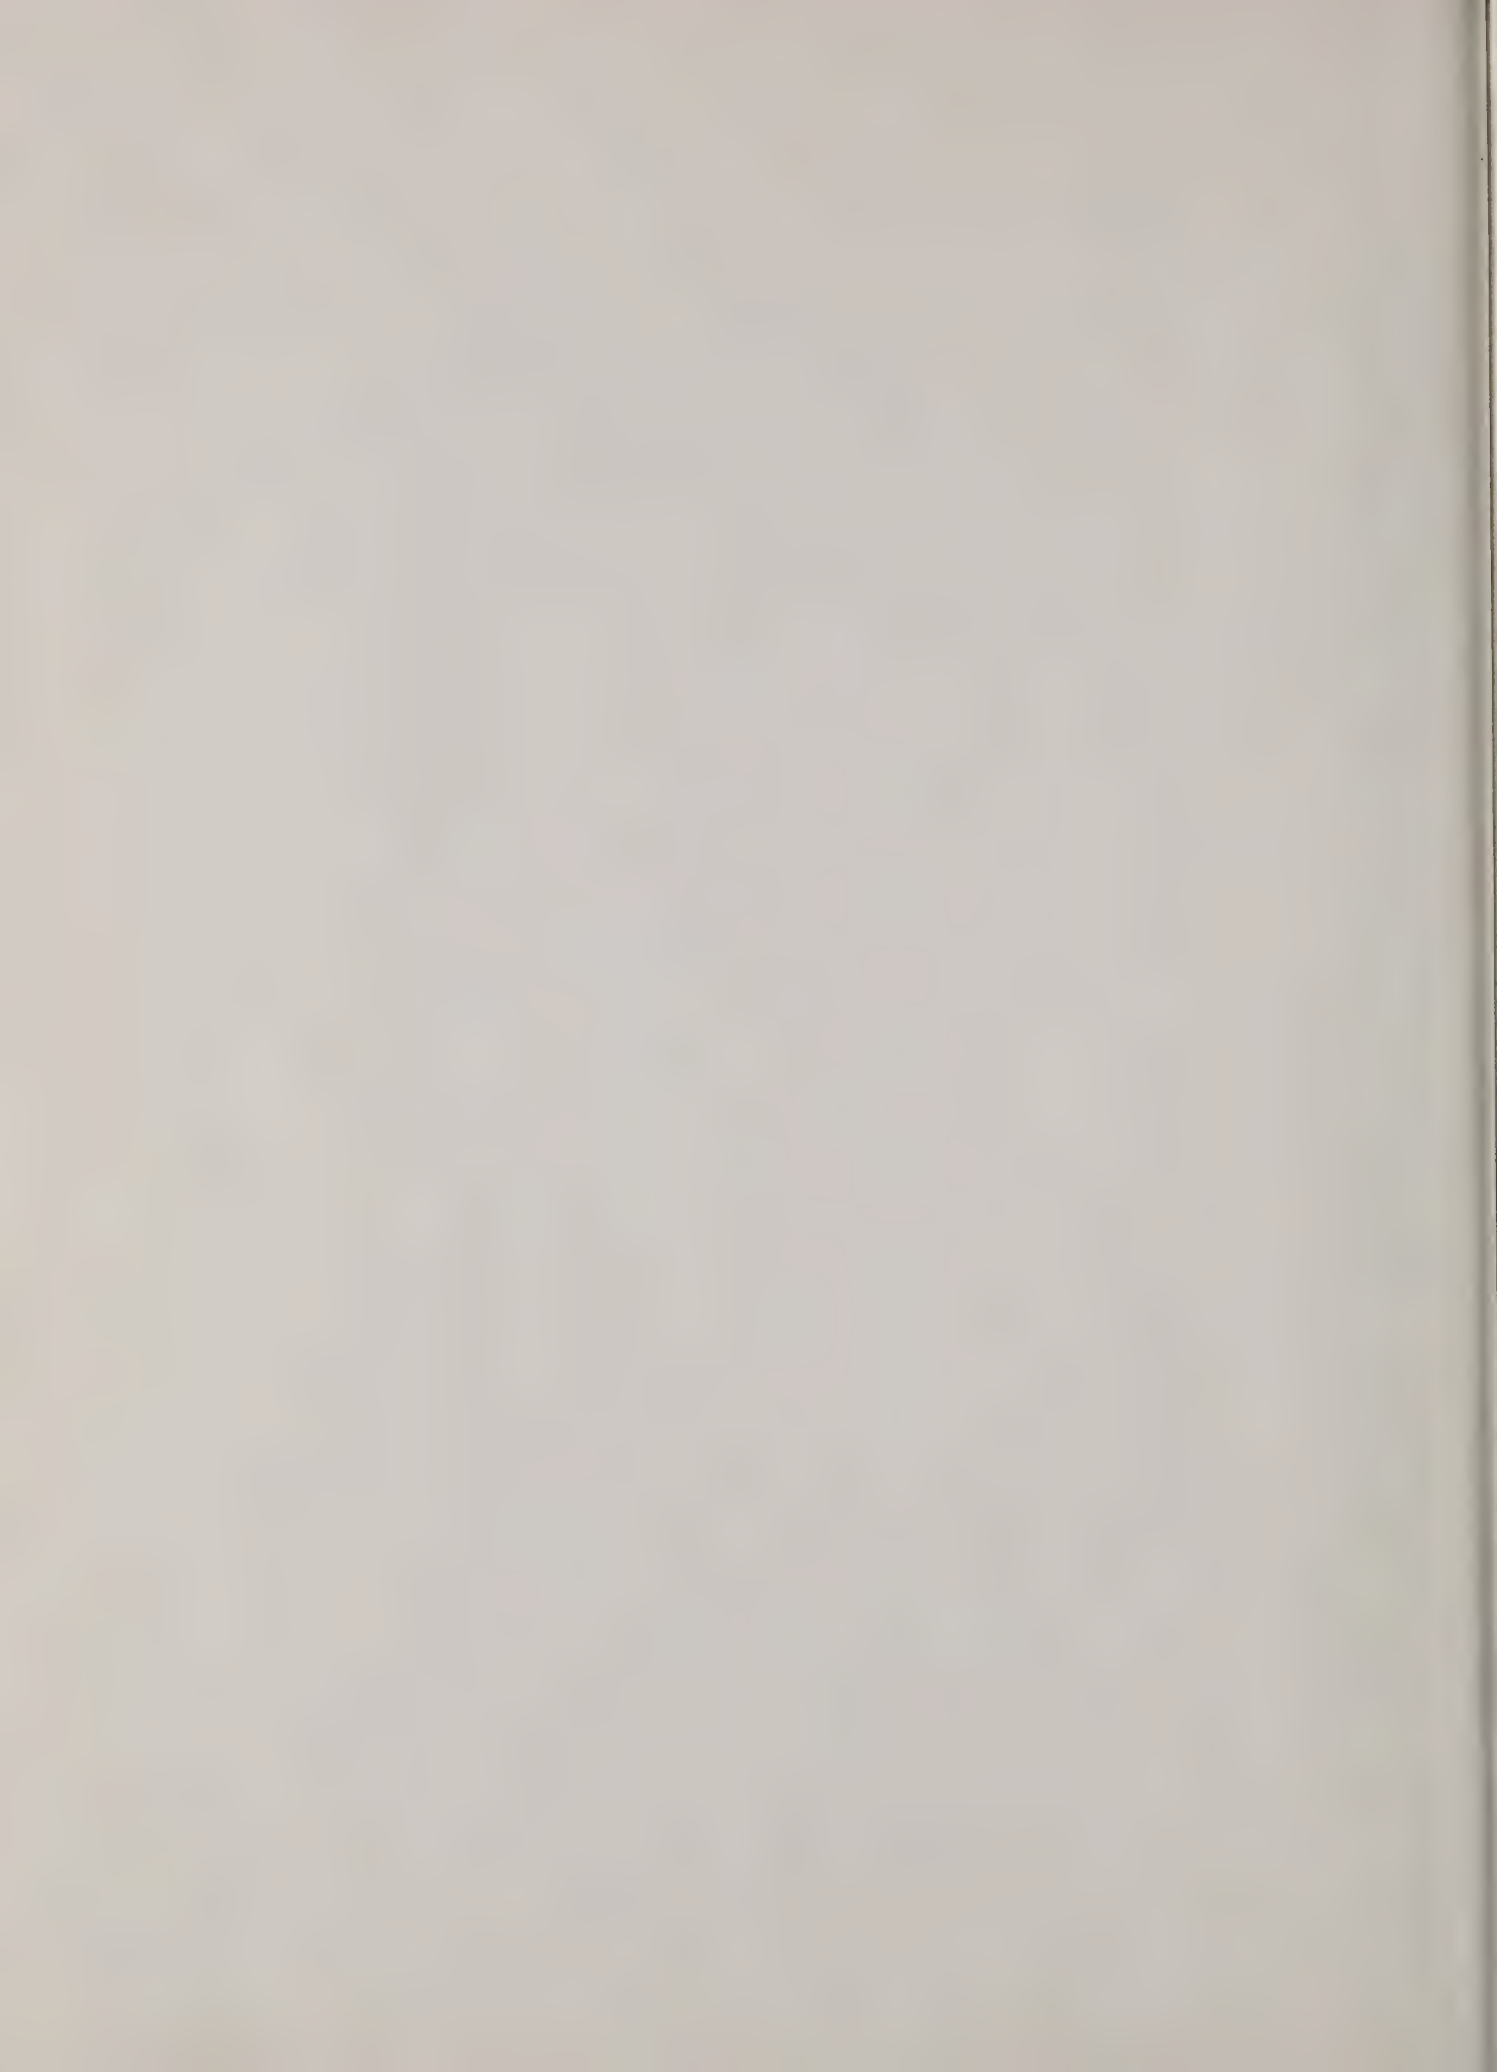

Space does not permit the listing of all who have given of their time and interest during the six years of work. The compilers sincerely thank them.
